The sale will be by public auction, and the property will be put up for sale in the lots specified in the schedule. The sale will be of the property, of the Certificate-debtor abovenamed, as mentioned in the schedule below. The special condition regarding lot No. 1 (the property in arrear) is that it will first be put up to auction subject to registered and notified incumbrances, and will be sold subject to those incumbrances if the sum bid is sufficient to liquidate the amount specified in the certificate, and costs, and that otherwise, it will, if Certificate-holder so desires, be sold on a subsequent day, of which due notice will be given, with power to annul all incumbrances

In the absence of any order of postponement, the sale will be held by the Khas Certificate Officer at 12 A.M. on the 20th January 1919, at the Office of the Khas Certificate Officer, Noakhali. In the event, however, of the debt above specified, and the costs of the sale being tendered or paid before the knocking down of any lot, the sale will be stopped.

At the sale the public generally are invited to bid, either personally or by duly authorized agent.

The sale proclamation issued on the 28th November 1918 fixing the 2nd January 1919 for the sale is hereby cancelled.

The following are the further

Conditions of sale :—

1. The particulars specified in the schedule below have been stated to the best of the information of the Certificate Officer ; but the Certificate Officer will not be answerable for any error, mis-statement, or omission in this proclamation.

2. The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount bid, or as to the bidder, the lot shall at once be again put up to auction.

3. The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser of any lot, provided always that he is legally qualified to bid, and provided that it shall be in the discretion of the officer holding the sale to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate as to make it advisable to do so.

4. For reasons recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the officer condecting the sale to adjourn it, subject always to the provisions of rule 50 in Schedule II to the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913.

5. The person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of 25 per cent. on the amount of his purchase-money to the officer conducting the sale, and in default of such deposit the property shall forthwith be put up again and resold.

6. The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the office of the Certificate Officer closes on the fifteenth day after the sale of the property, exclusive of such day, or, if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day.

7. In default of payment of the balance of the purchase-money within the period allowed, the property shall be resold after the issue of a fresh notification of sale. The deposit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, may, if the Certificate Officer thinks fit, be forfeited to the Government, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.

Given under the seal of the Court, this the 14th day of December 1918.

GIRIJA BHUSHON GHOSHAL, Khas Certificate Officer.

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The Fund is now of ten years' standing and has a balance of over three-and-a-half lakhs with Government on four per cent. interest. For forms of applications and rules of the Fund apply to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

PART III.

Operation of Part III.

5. The provisions of this Part shall not come into operation until a notification has been issued under section 6, sub-section (2).

Primary education when to be declared compulsory.

6. (1) If, after complying with the directions of the Local Government under section 4, the Commissioners are of opinion that the primary education of all boys, not being less than six or more than ten years of age, should be made compulsory within the Municipality, or any part thereof, they may apply to the Local Government, in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made by the Local Government, for permission to introduce therein compulsory primary education for such boys.

(2) The Local Government, after considering the application and after determining the financial assistance from the Government which may be necessary to provide for compulsory primary education within the Municipality, shall, if satisfied that the Municipality is able to meet the expenditure involved, grant the permission asked for, and the Commissioners shall thereupon cause a notification to be issued declaring that primary education shall be compulsory for all such boys within the Municipality, or any part thereof, as the case may be.

(3) Every notification issued under this section shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette and in the local newspapers, if any, and shall be posted up at the Municipal office and at such other places, as the Commissioners shall deem necessary, specifying the date on and from which primary education shall be compulsory within the Municipality, or any part thereof.

Duty of guardian to send boy to school.

8. (1) In every area to which the provisions of this Part apply, it shall be the duty of the guardian of every boy, not being less than six or more than ten years of age, residing within that area to cause such boy to attend a recognized primary school unless, in the opinion of the School Committee, there is a reasonable excuse for his non-attendance.

(2) Any of the following circumstances shall be deemed to be a reasonable excuse within the meaning of this section :—

(a) that there is no recognized primary school within a distance of one mile, measured by the shortest route, from the residence of the boy which he can attend, and to which the guardian has no reasonable objection to send the boy ;

(1) If the School Committee is satisfied that a guardian who is required under section 8 to cause a boy to attend a recognized primary school, has failed to do so, it shall, after giving a warning in writing to such guardian, apply to a Magistrate for an order to compel the guardian to enforce the attendance of such boy; and the Magistrate shall fix a day for the hearing of the application and cause notice thereof to be given to such guardian.

(2) On the day fixed for the hearing of the application or on any subsequent day to which it may be adjourned, and after hearing the guardian or his authorized agent, if present, the Magistrate, if satisfied that the facts alleged in the application are true, may pass an order directing the guardian to cause such boy to attend a recognized primary school from a date to be specified in such order.

Employer's liability.

12. (1) The School Committee may prosecute any person who, after due warning, contravenes the provisions of section 11.

(2) Unless such person satisfies the Magistrate that there is a reasonable excuse, within the meaning of section 8, sub-section (2), for the non-attendance of the boy, or that the time and nature of employment of the boy are such that he is not prevented from attending a recognized primary school, or that the boy was taken into employment under false representations as to age, residence and other conditions, such person shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

16. The Local Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, exempt any class of persons or any community, in any area to which this Act extends, from the operation of this Part.

PART IV.

Education cess.

17. (1) If the existing resources of any Municipality including any grant from the Government, are not sufficient to cover the cost of primary education within the Municipality, the Commissioners may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, impose a tax, to be called the "education cess"; and all amounts derived therefrom shall be devoted solely to the purposes of primary education, whether voluntary or compulsory, within the Municipality.

(2) An education cess shall not be imposed unless the Commissioners by a resolution, passed at a special general meeting convened for the purpose and in favour of which two-thirds of the Commissioners have voted, determine to impose such cess.

(3) The education cess shall be levied in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made by the Local Government, and the cess so levied shall be a rate amounting to the sum required, after deducting the Government grant, the school receipts and the receipts from endowments and contributions, to meet the expenditure on primary education, together with ten per cent. above such sum to meet the collection charges and the probable losses due to non-realization from defaulters.

2. As will be seen, we have materially modified the form and intention of the Bill by the introduction of provisions relating to voluntary primary education. The Bill as originally presented to Council purposed to give to Commissioners of Municipalities, and local authorities of other selected areas, only the power to make primary education compulsory. A study of the opinions received on that Bill, and of other evidence relating to the present condition of primary education in the province, has convinced us that few municipalities are in a position to contemplate in one step advance from present conditions, in which municipalities have no organized system of primary schools, to compulsory primary education under municipal control, and that the Bill would consequently not be made widely operative. We are of opinion that a more gradual advance should be provided for, and that Municipal Commissioners may reasonably be expected to meet the full demand for voluntary primary education within the municipality before proceeding to make provision for the education of those boys whose education will be possible only under compulsion. The provisions for meeting the demand for primary education on a voluntary basis are set out in Part II of the Bill as now presented. It will be seen that the Commissioners' first step will be to face the situation by estimating the existing demand for primary education and the ultimate requirements under the proposed system of compulsion. The preparation of an estimate is obligatory, and, if Government are satisfied that resources are adequate, may be followed by an order that the Commissioners shall make provision to meet the existing demand. In this way, it is anticipated, considerable advance will be made in the systematic organization of primary education in municipal areas.

3. The adoption of compulsion and the provision of resources to meet consequential requirements, remain entirely permissive, but are not to be contemplated until the Commissioners have met the obligations imposed by that part of the Bill relating to voluntary education. Compulsion is to apply to all boys between the ages of six and ten, and to them only : whereas the obligations under Part II of the Bill have relation to both boys and girls between the ages of six and eleven.

4. Briefly the effect of the Bill will be to ensure proper provision in the first place for the primary education of all children between six and eleven desirous of attending school under the voluntary system, and subsequently if and when due provision has been made for their education under the voluntary system, for the primary education of all boys between six and ten under the compulsory system. Therefore, in any municipality in which the provisions of the Bill have been made operative in their entirety, there will be adequate provision for the education of (1) all boys between six and ten, and (2) all boys between ten and eleven who wish to attend primary schools, and (3) all girls between six and eleven who wish to attend primary schools. Obligations beyond these are not contemplated by the Bill, though it does not prevent municipalities from making provision for other classes of children.

5. A further important modification of the original Bill calls for notice in this connection. The original Bill contemplated an education cess only as a concomitant of compulsory and free education. This point of view we have found ourselves unable to accept, either as a matter of principle or as a matter of expediency. We consider that an education cess may reasonably be levied, at the instance of the Commissioners, as an additional resource for the provision of voluntary education, and we consider it inadvisable to impose upon Commissioners the obligation of foregoing at any stage the income derived from school fees. Such concessions as may be found necessary in this regard are amply provided for in clause 18 of the Bill as now presented.

6. Clause 2 (1).—We think it unnecessary to give any power to the Local Government to prescribe the days and time of attendance at a recognized primary school. It will be sufficient if the School Committee is empowered to prescribe them, subject to the rules and orders of the Education Department of the Government of Bengal.

7. Clause 2 (2).—This sub-clause has been omitted in view of the fact that new provisions have been introduced relating to the voluntary education of both boys and girls between the ages of six and eleven.

8. Clause 2 (6).—In our opinion it is advisable to leave the determination of the primary school curriculum to the Education Department of the Government of Bengal and not to specify the subjects in the Bill itself.

9. Clause 2C.—This new clause provides that the provisions relating to compulsory primary education shall not be in force until a notification declaring primary education to be compulsory has been issued by the Commissioners.

10. Clause 2D.—This new clause reproduces the provisions of clauses 3(2), 4, 5 and 6 as explained in the notes on those clauses. Clause 2D (1) makes it clear, however, that compulsory primary education shall be introduced only after due provision has been made for voluntary primary education.

11. Clause 3 (1).—This sub-clause has been omitted as the procedure for the introduction of compulsory primary education has been altered in order to make voluntary primary education precede compulsory primary education.

12. Clause 3 (2).—The provisions of this sub-clause have been reproduced in the new sub-clause 2D (3).

13. Clause 4.—The provisions of this clause have, with modifications necessitated by the introduction of provisions relating to voluntary primary education, been reproduced in the new sub-clause 2D (1).

14. Clause 5.—The provisions of this clause have been reproduced in the new sub-clause 2D (4).

15. Clause 6.—The first part of this clause has been reproduced in the new sub-clause 2D (1). The second part, namely, that relating to certificates or particulars to be furnished, has been omitted in view of the modified provisions in the Bill regarding the introduction of compulsory primary education.

16. Clause 7.—The latter part of this clause, which provides that the School Committee shall enforce the provisions of this proposed Act respecting the attendance at school and the employment of children, has been omitted in view of the obligation and liability imposed upon guardians and employers in clauses 8 to 15 as amended.

We consider it desirable that the School Committee should be a representative body. Accordingly, we have provided that one or more residents of the municipality other than a Commissioner shall be a member of the Committee.

17. Clause 9.—The provisions of this clause have been reproduced with modifications in sub-clause 8 (2).

We think that the distance of one mile referred to in sub-clause (a) should be measured not along the nearest road but by the shortest route from the residence of the boy.

We also think that the words "or other sufficient cause" in sub-clause (b) should be omitted as the clause is in its nature indicative not comprehensive.

18. Clause 11 (1).—This sub-clause has been recast and the limit of the fine that may be imposed on a first conviction has been increased to five rupees, as we consider that the proposed maximum fine of two rupees would be inadequate in some cases. Provision has also been made for a continuing fine in the case of a continuing offence.

19. Clause 12.—A proviso has been added to this clause in order to make it clear that the permission required under the clause will not be necessary when the time of employment is such that the boy is left free to attend a recognized primary school.

20. Clause 13 (2).—We have made several modifications in this sub-clause, partly with a view to bring it into fuller conformity with new sub-clause 8 (2).

We have also thought it necessary to make the employer liable in every case and so eliminate the possibility of evasion of the intentions of the Bill by the plea that the boy was employed by an agent or workman. The employer will always receive a preliminary warning and the defence of ignorance will not be open to him at any subsequent prosecution under sub-clause 13 (1).

21. Clause 14.—In view of the modifications made in clause 13, this clause becomes unnecessary and has been omitted.

22. Clause 16.—The provisions of this clause have been reproduced in the new clause 21A with the modification that the power to exempt any class or community from the operation of the proposed Act has been reserved to the Local Government alone as, in our opinion, the School Committee should not be empowered to make such decisions.

23. Clause 17(1).—The provisions of this sub-clause have been reproduced in the new sub-clause 21B(1). As it is proposed to provide for the introduction of voluntary primary education in municipal areas the sub-clause has been made applicable to voluntary and compulsory education.

24. Clause 17(2).—The provisions of this sub-clause have been reproduced in the new sub-clause 21B (2), but as it is desirable that the question of the imposition of the cess should be properly considered by the Commissioners as a body we have thought it necessary to provide that imposition should depend on a resolution to that effect passed by a majority of the total number of the Commissioners.

25. Clause 17 (3).—The provisions of this sub-clause have been reproduced in the new sub-clause 21B (1).

26. Clause 17 (4).—The provisions of this sub-clause have been reproduced in the new sub-clause 21B (3), but the words "on the recommendation of the Commissioners" have been omitted in order to give the Local Government the power to make general rules for all municipalities.

27. Clause 17 (5).—This sub-clause has been omitted as we do not think it advisable to constrain municipalities to make primary education free even where an education cess is imposed.

28. Clauses 19 and 20.—The provisions of these two clauses have been reproduced in the new clauses 21D and 21F, respectively.

29. Clause 21A.—This new clause reproduces the provisions of clause 16 with certain modifications explained in the note on that clause.

30. Clause 21B.—This new clause reproduces the provisions of clause 17 relating to an education cess with modifications explained in the notes on the sub-clauses of that clause.

We have inserted this new clause as a separate part so as to make its provisions applicable to both voluntary and compulsory primary education.

31. Clause 21C.—This new clause has been inserted in order to confer the rule-making power rendered necessary by the new sub-clauses 2D (1) and 21B (3).

32. Clauses 21D and 21F.—These two clauses reproduce, as has been stated before, the provisions of clauses 19 and 20.

33. Clause 21E.—To facilitate the performance of the duties of the School Committee we consider it advisable to make the officers and servants of the School Committee as well as the persons authorized by the School Committee under clause 15 public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

34. We recommend that the Bill, as thus amended, be passed.

all amounts derived therefrom shall be devoted solely to the purposes of primary education, whether voluntary or compulsory, within the Municipality.

[Cf cl. 20.]

A. M. HUTCHISON,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal and

Secy. to the Bengal Legislative Council (Offg.).

53. Clause 57.—The power of inspection of union boards has been extended to the chairman of the district board, the chairman of the local board and to any other person authorized by them or by the Government, the Commissioner or the District Magistrate. Provision is thus made for control by non-officials as well as for inspection, when necessary, by expert officers deputed to make special inquiries.

54. Clause 59.—With the elimination of circle boards clause 59 becomes unnecessary, and has been omitted.

55. Clause 59A.—Provision is here made for realizing the pay of dafadars, chaukidars and staff, together with the cost of the equipment of the two former. The union authorities will no longer be personally responsible for the punctual payment of these sums, as is the case under section 45 of Bengal Act VI of 1870, but at the same time clause 48 of the Bill as introduced in Council does not afford an adequate alternative ; the union board may have no property which can be distrained, and no provision is made for cases in which there is no balance in the union fund. The clause has therefore been amended so as to empower the District Magistrate to appoint a person to collect from the rate-payers the sum necessary to defray arrears.

56. Clause 60.—Sub-clauses (2) and (3) of clause 60 appear to overlap, and the latter has therefore been omitted.

57. Clause 61.—As an alternative to the extreme measure of superseding the whole of a union board which proves grossly incompetent, provision has been made for the removal of the president alone. In such cases it is obviously desirable that the ex-president should at the same time cease to be a member of the board.

We have provided that before taking action under this clause the District Magistrate shall consider the views of the district board.

58. Clause 62 originally provided that in case of supersession a union board should be replaced by the circle board. As now amended the clause empowers the District Magistrate, with the sanction of the Commissioner, to select a suitable person to carry on the work of the union board during the period of its supersession.

59. Clause 64 is covered by section 126 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885, as amended by this Bill, and has therefore been omitted.

60. Clauses 66 and 67.—As it is not proposed to establish circle boards, clauses 66 and 67 have been omitted.

61. Clause 68.—We have redrafted the first paragraph of this clause on the lines of section 17(b) of Bengal Act III of 1890.

62. Clause 70.—We have redrafted this clause on the lines of section 56 of Bengal Act III of 1884.

63. Clause 73 has been modified, divided into two clauses and transposed as clauses 1A and 1B to the beginning of the Bill, which is considered to be a more appropriate position for it.

64. Clause 74.—It is considered that in some cases it may be desirable to establish a union bench for a part only of a union, e.g., a large village or bazar.

It also appears desirable to make it clear that the union bench can only try offences committed within the limits of its jurisdiction.

It is further provided that membership of a union bench ceases on the expiry of the term of office as a member of the union board.

The words "and may at any time cancel any such notification" have been omitted, as they are rendered unnecessary by the Bengal General Clauses Act, 1899.

65. Clause 75 has been amended to provide for cases in which the magisterial work is carried on by a Magistrate empowered under section 190 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

In proviso (a) the expression "transfer the complaint" is considered more correct than the expression "refer the complainant", and has been substituted for the latter.

66. Clause 76.—Provision is made for petitions to be received by any member of a union bench.

67. Clause 79.—In sub-clause (1) the words "under section 77 or section 78" have been omitted as unnecessary.

Sub-clause (2) appears to be superfluous and has been omitted.

Provision has been inserted in sub-clause (3) for cases where the accused refuses to obey the order to attend before the union bench.

Sub-clause (4) has been redrafted to make it clear that the union bench should ordinarily dispose of all cases on the first day of hearing. When that is impossible it is now provided that the accused should, pending the completion of the trial, be released on his own recognizance. It is considered that imprisonment pending trial is neither appropriate nor altogether practicable.

68. Clause 80.—Power has been given to the District Magistrate to deal with cases of serious miscarriage of justice throughout his jurisdiction.

69. Clause 81.—In sub-clause (2) it is provided that even when there are several accused the total compensation payable shall not exceed Rs. 25.

The second proviso has been omitted as unnecessary.

70. Clause 82 has been amended on the same lines as clause 74.

71. Clause 83.—To provide for the case of the court of small causes, the words "ordinary civil court" have been substituted for the words "court of the munsif", and corresponding amendments have been made in the succeeding clauses.

Clause 83 has been recast in such a way that it may be more readily understood, and the power to apply for the withdrawal of a suit from the union court has been restricted to any defendant.

72. Clause 84.—In view of the complications incidental to such cases, it is thought advisable to debar union courts from trying suits in which either of the parties is a minor.

73. Clause 85.—The words "other than a suit relating to immovable property" have been omitted, as the union court has no jurisdiction in any such suits.

Specific provision has been inserted to the effect that a union court may not try a suit unless the cause of action has arisen within the limits of its jurisdiction.

74. Clauses 89 and 90.—Words have been inserted in clause 89 to make it clear that the defendant need not necessarily file a written statement, but may make his defence orally. Similarly, under clause 90 the defendant has been permitted to apply orally or in writing for an order passed ex parte to be set aside.

75. Clause 92.—It is considered advisable to make express provision that Government, public officers as such, minors or lunatics may not be added as parties to a suit. If the addition of such parties becomes necessary the case must then go to the ordinary civil court for disposal.

76. Clause 94.—The expression "pass such decree" has been substituted for "make such decision", as being more appropriate.

Provision has been inserted to make the decree complete, including mention of fees and the expenses of witnesses, and of the persons by whom these various sums are payable.

77. Clause 96.—In the case of joint parties to a suit it is considered that any individual party should have the right of applying for a re-trial. The clause has been amended accordingly.

78. Clause 97.—For the word "heirs" the words "legal representatives" have been substituted, and it has been made clear that in no event can the union court try a suit in which any of the parties is a minor.

79. Clause 98.—It is considered inequitable that in the case of a person being wrongfully sued, he should be required to pay in the court of the munsif the court-fees which would, but for the establishment of a union court, have been payable by the plaintiff. The clause has accordingly been omitted.

80. Clause 99.—The word "fees" has been substituted for the word "costs" as being more appropriate.

81. Clause 100.—The words "such costs as the court may consider reasonable" have been substituted for the words "his costs as between pleader and client", as there is no prescribed scale for the latter.

82. Clause 101.—Since in all suits triable by a union court a definite sum of money or specific movable property is involved it is considered unnecessary to retain clause 101.

83. Clause 102.—Provision has been inserted to enable the decree-holder to recover from the judgment-debtor any fee paid under clause 99.

84. Clause 102A.—The case of partial satisfaction of a decree has been considered, and it is thought that the amount realized should be distributed rateably between the decree-holder and the union fund if realization is effected by the union court, and between the decree-holder and Government if realization is effected by the munsif. A clause to this effect has been inserted as clause 102A.

85. Clause 104.—It has been provided that in the absence of the president of the union board, the union bench or court should elect its own president.

86. Clause 104A.—It is thought appropriate to transpose clause 112 to the Chapter dealing with general provisions relating to union benches and courts. It has accordingly been reproduced as clause 104A.

The explanation added to the clause is in conformity with section 556 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

87. Clause 105.—In regard to sub-clause (3) of clause 105 there is considerable opinion that 15 miles is too far to require a witness to travel without being reimbursed his expenses. The sub-clause has been amended to provide for payment of expenses to witnesses who reside outside the union.

For the sake of simplicity, sub-clauses (4) and (5) have been combined.

88. Clause 107.—Slight amendments have been made to clause 107. These merely recognize the facts that under clause 106 (2) women have already been exempted from appearing as defendants unless they do so voluntarily, and that any relative has already been permitted to represent them before a union court.

89. Clause 108.—In consequence of the amendment made in clause 99, the word "fees" has been substituted for the word "costs" in clause 108, and in consequence of the provisions now inserted in clause 79 (4) for the taking of bonds from accused persons pending the completion of their trial, provision has been made for the recovery of the amount of forfeited bonds.

90. Clause 110.—Since the operation of the Court-fees Act, 1870, is barred under clause 103, clause 110(1) is unnecessary and has been omitted. Provision is, however, retained under clause 111 (2) (u) for the making of rules regarding the furnishing of copies of documents and the fees to be levied thereon.

91. Clause 111.—Sub-clause (5) has been amalgamated with sub-clause (1).

The portion of sub-clause (2) (a) dealing with the qualifications and disqualifications of voters, candidates and members has been omitted as complete provision regarding these matters is contained in the body of the Bill.

In sub-clause (2) (d) provision has been inserted for rules regarding the powers that may be exercised by the vice-president of a union board ; but it is considered unnecessary to mention rules regarding powers exercisable by sub-committees or members.

Portions of sub-clauses (e) and (m) and the whole of sub-clauses (f) and (p) have been omitted as unnecessary.

The concluding words of sub-clause (2) (j), namely :—"and defining and prohibiting public nuisances within the village" and sub-clause (4) have been omitted because it is considered that sufficient powers for dealing with public nuisances have been provided under clauses 29 and 30 of the Bill and under section 290 and other sections of the Indian Penal Code.

As it is not considered desirable to empower union benches to detain persons apprehended under clause 79, and as union boards cannot issue warrants, all mention of such powers has been omitted from sub-clause (r).

92. Clause 114.—As it is not now proposed to establish circle boards there is no necessity to provide for breaches of by-laws ; consequently clause 114 has been omitted.

93. Schedule I (original Schedule III).—As some portions of the Village-chaukidari Act are being retained it is considered advisable to retain also the preamble, and section 79 which gives the name of the Act.

In view of the opinion that circle boards should not be established and that local boards should be retained, several changes have become necessary in regard to the sections of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act required to be amended or repealed. The following are the most important:—

Following the Bengal General Clauses Act the definition of local authority has been made to include union boards, and the remaining sections of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act have been so amended that this definition remains constant throughout.

It has been provided by amending section 6 that wherever a union board is established, a local board must also be established unless one already exists with authority over that area.

It is desirable that where union boards are established, the electorate for the local boards should correspond with the electorate for the union boards. Provision to this effect has been made by amending section 9. The qualifications required of candidates have also been made the same for local boards as for union boards ; this has been effected by the amended sub-section (2) of section 9 and by the repeal of section 13.

The omission of union committees from sections 18 and 18A is consequential on the abolition of those bodies in areas to which the proposed Act will apply. For the same reason sections 36 to 44, 56 to 58, 104 to 119 and 133 have been repealed, and why sub-clause (d) of clause Fifthly of section 53, and sections 130, 131, 132, 138, 142 and 146 have been amended.

94. Schedule II (original Schedule I).—It is considered desirable to add certain specified forms of crime to the offences which a chaukidar is required to report and for which he is authorized to arrest, and also to include conspiracies to commit any of the specified substantive offences.

95. Schedule III (original Schedule II).—Item 2 has been omitted in consequence of the alteration made in clause 15(1). Item 3 has been omitted in consequence of the amendment made in clause 17 (1). Item 7 has been omitted because it is expedient that the District Magistrate should exercise sole control over the district chaukidari reward fund.

The examination and revision of assessments of the union rate made by union boards will in many instances be performed by the circle officer. It is therefore considered necessary to insert the name of the circle officer in item 8. A similar amendment has been made in item 10, because it will be part of the circle officer's duties to see that union boards act in conformity with the law and rules thereunder.

96. Schedule IV.—We have made several additions to the offences triable by union boards and have also removed from the Schedule some of the offences previously made so triable.

97. We recommend that the Bill, as thus amended, be passed.

* This member signed subject to his Note of Dissent appended.

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE BABU BHABENDRA CHANDRA RAY.

1. Clause 5.—In sub-clause (1) for the word "resident" the words "having a place of residence" should be substituted; and in sub-clause (2) before the words "shall be . . . . .", the words "and is resident within the union" should be inserted.

My intention is to give the franchise to persons who may not "ordinarily reside" within the limits of the union, but are otherwise qualified to vote and have a stake in the union area. Membership of union boards may, however, be limited to residents, as defined in the explanation to this clause.

2. Clause 26.—I do not find anything either in clause 26, or in part II, chapter VII, which makes it obligatory on dafadars and chaukidars to obey the orders of the union court or bench. Clause 26, sub-clause (1) (ix) lays down that the chaukidar "shall obey the orders of the union board" in regard to certain matters. But nothing is said about the union bench and court.

3. Clause 62.—Sub-clauses (1) (b) and (1) (c) should be recast on the lines of the corresponding provisions of the Bill as originally introduced. Sub-clause (1) (b) of the said Bill laid down that "all the powers and duties of the village committee.............. shall, until such committee........ is reconstituted, be exercised and performed by the circle board............, and all property vested in the village committee..............shall, during the period of such supersession, be vested in the said circle board...........". I think that, in the case of supersession of any union board, the local board should step in and take up the duties of the union board, except in matters relating to dafadars and chaukidars which are excluded from the jurisdiction of the local board under clause 55A. All matters relating to dafadars and chaukidars may, in such a case, be left to the charge of such person or persons as the District Magistrate may direct.

4. Clause 74.—Under this clause the Local Government may appoint all or any of the members of a union board to be a union bench. I am clearly of opinion that in no case should a union bench be composed of less than three members. Clause 104 seems to assume that the union bench and the union court will be composed of more than one member; but three should be laid down in clause 74 as the minimum number of members to constitute a union bench.

5. Clause 82.—The union court should also consist of at least three members.

6. Clause 111.—Power should be provided for under this clause to make rules determining, according to some standard, a minimum of the contributions or assignments to be made to the union board by Government and the district board, respectively. Clause 38(a), as I read it, leaves the Local Government free either to make any such contribution or not. Again, clause 46 only enables the district board to "make to the union board such grants-in-aid......as they may think fit". Undue stress seems to have been laid on local taxation, against the definite recommendations made by the Decentralization Commission in this connection (see the report of the Commission, paragraph 718). In paragraph 719 of their report, the Commission recommended that a panchayat's revenue should be derived from the following sources:—

(i) assignment to it of a portion of the land cess;
(ii) special grants by sub-district boards or Collectors;
(iii) receipts from village cattle-pounds or markets; and
(iv) small fees on civil suits filed before it.

My suggestion is that an assignment should be made to the union boards of at least half the land cesses levied within the union area, besides any other grants from the district fund and some minimum contribution by the Local Government. But, if there is any objection to making rigid statutory provisions in this behalf, power should be taken under clause 111 to make rules to secure the object.

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE RAI SRI NATH RAY BAHADUR.

1. Clause 5.—In my opinion any male person who is otherwise qualified, and has a permanent place of residence in the union where he occasionally resides, should be entitled to vote at the election of members (though he may not be entitled to be a member) to the union board. Such a person has a real practical connection with the union. Besides, he contributes to the union fund by paying taxes levied within the union. It will not be just to compel a person to pay taxes and at the same time to deprive him of taking any part in the administration of these taxes in the union where he has got a permanent house and other interests. The restriction of franchise to residence in the union for more than seven months in the year is thus objectionable on these grounds. It will have the effect of keeping out many leading and capable men of the union from the electoral roll to the detriment of the public interest.

2. Clause 22A.—The dafadar of the union should also be nominated by the union board as in the case of the chaukidar. The control over the rural police should rest primarily with the union board. Otherwise, the latter will be placed at a great disadvantage in the administration of the union affairs entrusted to it. The dafadar is practically the head chaukidar. There is no reason for making a different provision for his appointment.

3. Clause 38.—The success of village self-government depends principally on its finances. In this matter the recommendation of the Decentralization Commission should be carefully considered. According to the Commission the revenue of a panchayat (union board) should be derived from the following sources :—

(a) the assignment of a portion of the land cess levied for local board purposes in the union ;

(b) special grants, for particular objects of local improvement, to be made by sub-district boards or Collectors ;

(c) the receipts from cattle-pounds or markets within the union which may be entrusted to its management ; and

(d) small fees in civil suits filed before it.

The Commission was against any new form of taxation. I think the above sources should be supplemented by local taxation for which a maximum upon any person in any one year should be fixed. In my opinion the amount should be forty-two rupees, instead of eighty-four. If the union board depends solely upon local taxation it will naturally be unpopular, resulting in its total failure. Villages are generally poor and the people who are already heavily taxed in various ways will feel and resent it keenly. The union board will rarely dare go against the public opinion of the village.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 553L., dated Calcutta, the 17th March, 1919.—The following further Report of the Select Committee, to which the Bill was recommitted, was presented to the Bengal Legislative Council on the 13th March, 1919 (with the Bill as further amended by the Committee), and is hereby published for general information:—

THE BENGAL VILLAGE SELF-GOVERNMENT BILL, 1919.

FURTHER REPORT OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON THE BENGAL VILLAGE SELF-GOVERNMENT BILL, 1919.

In pursuance of the motion passed by the Bengal Legislative Council on the 18th February, 1919, recommitting the Bengal Village Self-Government Bill to the Select Committee, we, the undersigned members of that Committee, have met and reconsidered the provisions of the Bill in the light of the amendments contained in Appendix A to the list of business for the meeting of Council held on the 18th February.

It has not been thought necessary to make specific mention of a few minor verbal changes that have been made in the Bill. The further amendments made by the Select Committee on recommitment are, as far as possible, printed in italics within square brackets.

2. We first considered the amendments which stood in the name of the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Bill and decided to recommend that the following should be adopted, namely :—

(1) In the Bill as submitted to the Council there was a discrepancy between clause IA and clause IB as to the date from which the repeal or amendment of the provisions of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 and of the Village-chaukidari Act, 1870, would take effect. To remove this discrepancy, and at the same time to arrange the sub-clauses in a more convenient and concise form, these two clauses have been redrafted.

(2) We have thought it advisable to make the meaning of sub-clause (2) of clause 5 more clear by substituting the word "entitled" for "qualified."

(3) Clause 25.—We had previously discussed the advisability of conferring on union boards some power to fine chaukidars, but the proposal was dropped. The amendments filed in Council, however, seem to indicate a feeling that union boards should have some such powers, and on reconsideration we have authorised union boards to impose fines up to a quarter of a month's salary.

(4) We think it advisable that in clause 32 (3), words should be inserted to make it quite clear that sources of water-supply on which public money is spent may be reserved only for the benefit of the public.

(5) We have decided to adopt a redraft of the opening words of clause 44, expressing the meaning of the original words in a more clear and succinct form.

(6) It was always the intention that a person appointed under clause 59A should collect any arrears of pay of chaukidars, etc., and should also realise any incidental expenses incurred in so doing. On re-examining the clause, we were of opinion that it did not convey this intention with sufficient explicitness. We have therefore made such verbal amendments as seemed necessary.

(7) In distributing the duties of a superseded union board, it is probable that some of its duties, such as those relating to roads, water-supply, sanitation, etc., may be made over to the local board. As a local board does not come within the meaning of the words "person or persons", we decided that in clause 62 "local authorities" (which term includes local boards) should be added to "person or persons."

(8) With reference to clause 68, we have accepted a suggestion made to us that the exemption granted to share-holders of joint-stock companies should be extended to members of co-operative societies.

(9) We consider that a slight modification of clause 72 should be made so as to make it clear that the provisions of that clause apply to suits against a union board as a corporate body as well as to suits against individual members or officers.

(10) An amendment filed in Council by the Hon'ble Kumar Shib Shekhareswar Ray drew our attention to the fact that the Bill contained no provision as to the time within which an application for the transfer of a suit from a union court should be filed. It would be inadvisable, for instance, to allow a party, who finds that the case is going against him, to obtain a transfer at the last moment when the decision is about to be pronounced. We propose the insertion of a new clause 89A, providing that, if before the commencement of the hearing, the defendant notifies to the union court that he has applied, or that he intends to apply, for the transfer of the suit to the ordinary civil court, the union court shall postpone the trial to enable the defendant to make his application and obtain orders. In the proviso to clause 83 a reference to the new clause 89A has been inserted.

(11) In clause 108 we have adopted a small verbal amendment to make it clear that the clause covers the dues of a union bench as well as those of a union court.

(12) In clause 26, sub-clauses (1) (xi) and (2), reference is made to rules relating to the duties of dafadars and chaukidars, but no mention is made of rules regarding the powers of those officers. We therefore thought that the mention of powers in sub-clause (2) (h) of clause 111 should be omitted, and that provision should be made therein only for rules regulating the duties of dafadars and chaukidars.

(13) An amendment stood in the name of the Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta to the effect that the income derived from all pounds and ferries within the union should be credited to the union fund. As regards pounds, this can be done by notification under section 31 of the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871, and it is usual when a new union committee is constituted, after consulting the district board, to make over all pounds in the union to the union committee. No modification of the law will be necessary to enable similar action to be taken in the case of union boards. As regards ferries, the case is somewhat different. The law at present only allows public ferries to be made over to a district board. We think it desirable that the Local Government should be empowered to make over a public ferry to local authorities other than district boards, and have, therefore, provided, by an addition to schedule I, for the amendment of section 35 of the Bengal Ferries Act, 1885.

(14) As we found that item 20 of schedule I was not altogether in conformity with clause 46 of the Bill, we amended the item by the omission of the words "for the purposes of this Act."

3. We then proceeded to examine certain other amendments in the Appendix, which the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Bill informed us that Government would have been prepared to accept if, in the course of discussion, it appeared that they met with the general approval of the Council. We decided to adopt the following amendments :—

(a) In sub-section (4) of clause 4, we agreed that the words "any member or members" should be substituted for the words "the full number of members prescribed," and that the words "vacancy or" should be inserted before the word "vacancies". In this connection, we have made provision in clause 111 for rules regarding the action to be taken in the case of the failure of an election.

(b) We decided to accept the proposal that, though only persons actually living within the union should be allowed to become members of the union board, the residential qualification of voters should be less stringent. As regards voters, we thought it sufficient to prescribe that they must have a place of residence within the union. Our acceptance of these proposals necessitated some modifications in clause 5.

(c) We also adopted a further amendment to clause 5 proposed by the Hon'ble Babu Ambika Charan Mazumdar to the effect that the qualified members of a joint undivided family should nominate one of their members to vote on behalf of the family.

(d) With reference to clauses 12 and 16 we accepted proposals that the powers of the district magistrate in regard to the removal of the president or a member of a union board should be transferred to the district board.

(e) We agreed to amend clause 15 in the manner proposed by the Hon'ble Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri, providing that a president's intention to resign should be notified in writing, and should be communicated to the union board as well as to the chairman of the district board. We also adopted a small amendment to make it quite clear that the union board has full power to accept the resignation of its vice-president.

(f) We have made an important amendment by adopting, with slight modifiations, the amendment to clause 22A proposed by the Hon'ble Rai Radha Charan Pal Bahadur. We thus confer on union boards the same powers of nominating and dismissing dafadars as they are given in regard to chaukidars. We consider that punishments other than dismissal are more appropriately dealt with under clause 25, as now amended by us.

(g) We have adopted the amendments to sub-clause (1) (i) of clause 26 proposed by the Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta, to the effect that the chaukidar should keep the president as well as the police informed of unnatural deaths and certain offences committed within the union and of disputes likely to lead to riots. We have also inserted a new sub-clause (ixa), based on an amendment proposed by the Hon'ble Babu Ambika Charan Mazumdar, imposing on the chaukidar the duty of giving information to the union board of the pollution of public sources of water-supply, encroachments on, and obstructions to, roads and waterways, and damage to public property.

(h) We thought it advisable to omit sub-clause (ii) (g) of clause 26, as it presumes a knowledge of the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, which a chaukidar cannot be expected to possess.

(i) Accepting the principle of amendments proposed by the Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul Haq, we have inserted words in clauses 29 and 30 requiring that, when notices are issued under those clauses, reasonable time must be allowed for compliance with the notices before recourse is had to the further powers of the union board.

(j) In prescribing the persons liable to assessment for union rate, clause 38 followed the lines of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act, which was so amended in 1908 as to bring under assessment all owners of tanks, wells and water-courses. After examining the reports of the discussions in Council we considered that the arguments adduced for the change made in 1908 are no longer adequate or convincing. We came to the conclusion that owners of tanks, wells and water-courses should not be taxed as such, and that the soundest course to follow would be to revert to the principle established by the Village-chaukidari Act of 1870, namely, that the persons to be assessed should be the residents and owners of buildings within the union.

(k) We have agreed to the amendment filed by the Hon'ble Kumar Shib Shekhareswar Ray to the effect that the penalty for default in payment of rate should be reduced to one-half of the arrear. Under the Chaukidari Act the penalty is equal to the arrear ; but as the amalgamated union rate under this Bill may be a larger sum than the chaukidari rate, a lower rate of penalty may be adequate.

(l) Clauses 80 and 96 contained provisions for a retrial in case of a serious failure of justice. We have accepted amendments filed by the Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur, and have now omitted the word "serious".

(m) Under clause 47 all fines realized by a union bench must be paid into the union fund. However, to remove all possibility of misconception, we have accepted the proposal of the Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta to re-affirm the principle in a new sub-clause, which we have numbered 81 (4).

(n) We have so amended clause 85 as to make it clear that if the cause of action lies to any extent within the area under its jurisdiction, a union court may try a suit arising therefrom.

(o) In the original Bill, clause 100 was introduced in order to provide a penalty for a plaintiff who takes to the ordinary civil court a suit which he ought to have instituted in the union court. We have reconsidered this matter, and have come to the conclusion that little good is likely to be done by the artificial device of the proposed penalty, which, moreover, would probably be rarely or never enforced. We have therefore adopted the amendment of the Hon'ble Kumar Shib Shekhareswar Ray, and have omitted clause 100.

(p) Agreeing with the Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul Haq, we have omitted item 1 of schedule III.

4. As we had all individually examined the amendments filed in Council, we finally discussed those amendments to which our attention was drawn by any of our members. The result was that we were able to accept in modified forms some amendments, among which were included the following :—

In connection with clause 41 we agreed that, while avoiding undue formality, it would be fair that some provision should be made to insure the making of a proper inquiry before orders changing an assessment are passed. We have therefore inserted in clause 41 the words "after such inquiry as may be necessary." Inquiries of this nature will usually be made by circle officers, and the Bill also empowered those officers to call for assessment papers and to pass orders thereon ; but we recognise a certain amount of justification for the contention that orders on assessment papers should be passed only by the district magistrate or subdivisional officer. We have therefore omitted the circle officer in item 8 of schedule III.

5. During the scrutiny to which the Bill has been subjected in the course of our re-examination of its provisions, certain defects and mistakes of drafting have come to light. Among those which we have now removed, the following are the most important :—

(a) In connection with clause 106 we have endeavoured to remove any doubt as to whether authority to appear as an agent need be by a formal document. It will be for the union bench or court to satisfy itself that the person appearing for an absent party is a proper representative.

(b) Item 10 in schedule III was scarcely one of true delegation. We have now omitted it, and have added subdivisional magistrates and circle officers to the officers specified in clause 56.

(c) Under sub-section (2) of section 52 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885, fines imposed by a union bench for breaches of district board by-laws must be credited to the district fund. Our attention was drawn to the conflict between that provision and clause 47 of the Bill. We have now removed the discrepancy by providing in schedule I for an amendment of section 52 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885.

6. We recommend that the Bill, as thus amended, be passed.

N.B.—The Hon'ble Mr. H. P. Duval was prevented by illness from attending the meetings of the Select Committee.

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE BABU BHABENDRA CHANDRA RAY.

I WAS prevented by certain unavoidable circumstances from taking part in the deliberations of the Select Committee this time. It is, therefore, with some amount of diffidence that I make the following observations :—

In my opinion, the principles of the following amendments, contained in appendix A to the list of business for the meeting of Council held on the 18th February last, should have been accepted and embodied in the Bill.

Amendment No. 18.—Appointment of members should be made by the district magistrate only upon the recommendation of the district board.

Amendments Nos. 24 and 25.—Upon failure of election of the members of a union board on the first occasion, a second election should, as a rule, be attempted.

Amendment No. 37.—Teachers may not sometimes be qualified to vote under the existing provisions of the Bill, though they may be able to exercise the franchise properly and act as members of the union board with credit. Teaching should, therefore, be an independent voting qualification.

Amendments Nos. 159 and 160.—Some Government contribution to the union fund should be made a statutory obligation.

Amendments Nos. 178 to 182.—The district board should be made bound to make a contribution to the union fund.

Amendment No. 188.—The minimum contribution from the district fund should be fixed at half the land cess realised within the union. In the alternative, rules should be framed under clause (iii) to secure this object, as suggested in amendment No. 270. Reference may, in this connection, be made to the recommendations of the Decentralization Commission quoted in my previous note of dissent.

Amendment No. 204.—Powers of supersession of a union Board should be exercised by the district magistrate only with the formal concurrence of the chairman of the district board when the latter is not the district magistrate himself.

Amendments Nos. 207 and 208.—Upon supersession of a union board, its functions under Part I of the Bill should be exercised by the local board; those under Part II may be exercised by a nominee of the district magistrate.

Amendments Nos. 221 to 224 and 236 to 238.—Three should be the minimum number of members to constitute a bench or court.

Amendment No. 227.—Some revisional powers should be vested in the district magistrate over decisions of the union bench. Under the present Bill, he would be powerless to order an acquittal even if he be convinced of the innocence of an accused person, the only course left to him in such circumstances being to order retrial of the accused person by a court of competent jurisdiction.

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE BABU MAHENDRA NATH RAY, C.I.E.

I sign the report subject to the following reservations :—

(1) I am of opinion that legislative provision is needed to require district boards to make suitable annual grants to union boards to enable the latter to carry out the purposes of the Act, quite apart from provision for allotment of funds proposed in clause 35 for the management of institutions, etc., to be made over to them. It seems to me that to enable the union boards properly to carry out their duties under Chapter III, allotment of funds to supplement the income from the union rate is absolutely necessary.

(2) I am of opinion that clauses 80 and 96 should be so amended as to empower the district magistrate or the district judge, as the case may be, in a proper case to cancel or modify the decision of a union bench or a union court without directing a retrial.

In reprinting the Bill, all changes made by us have, so far as possible, been underlined, but in the present Report we refer specifically to such changes only as appear to us to be of major importance. A few minor alterations are not discussed.

2. Clause 1, sub-clause (1).—We have altered the short title to "the Bengal Food Adulteration Act," as indicating more clearly the scope of the proposed Act.

Sub-clause (2).—We have provided for previous publication of notifications under this sub-clause [see section 24 of the Bengal General Clauses Act, 1899], in order to give the public reasonable notice of the proposed extension of the Act to any local area in respect of any specified article of food.

3. Clause 2, sub-clause (1).—The definition of "adulterated" has been revised on the lines of section 1(7) of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1899 (62 & 63, Vict., c. 51), so as to make it more comprehensive.

Sub-clause (2).—The definition of "food" has also been extended on the lines of section 26 of the same Statute.

Sub-clause (3).—The definition of "local area" has been put in general terms.

Sub-clause (4).—The Municipal Commissioners have been substituted for the Chairman of a Municipality as being more appropriate, and in the case of a local area other than a Municipality or a Cantonment, power has been given to the Local Government to appoint the local authority for that area.

Sub-clause (5).—The alteration made in the definition of "public analyst" is consequential on the amendment made in clause 3.

4. Clause 3.—Provision has been made for the appointment of a public analyst by a local authority with the approval of the Local Government.

5. Clause 4 has been revised so as to follow more closely the wording of section 4 of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1899.

6. Clause 5, sub-clause (1).—In this sub-clause, and also in sub-clauses (1) and (2) of clause 6, certain alterations have been made in order to make it clear that the prohibitions contained in these sub-clauses are to apply not only to the vendor but also to any person acting on his behalf.

The words "or is represented" have been inserted in order to make the intention of the clause clearer.

Provisos (c) and (d) to sub-clause (1) have been omitted. As regards proviso (c), we consider that the provisions regarding warranties would tend to defeat the object of the Bill. As regards proviso (d), we are of opinion that its retention would protect dealers who sell adulterated articles purchased from others, knowing them to be adulterated.

7. Clause 6, sub-clause (1).—We have omitted the reference in the first two lines in the original Bill to the proposed section 5 as we consider it inappropriate.

A reference to sterilized and desiccated milk in addition to condensed milk has been inserted. Specific provisions as regards "wheat flour" have also been embodied.

Sub-clause (1) (iii).—The condition as regards "ghee" has been restricted to substances derived from the milk of cows and buffaloes, with the exception of curds, which have been definitely excluded.

The provision that ghee "shall fulfil such conditions as may be prescribed by the Local Government" has been inserted as we consider it desirable that the Government should notify the standard in the case of ghee as well as in the cases of milk and butter under sub-clauses (i) and (ii).

Sub-clause (3) has been omitted, as we consider its provisions would tend to make prosecutions nugatory.

8. Clause 7.—The omission of this clause is consequential on the omission of the reference to a warranty in clauses 5 (1) and 6.

9. Clause 8(1).—The word "manufactory, shop or place" have been substituted for "factory" in order to make the intention clearer.

10. Clause 15 (2), proviso.—We have made an alteration so as to allow the Court to order an analysis on its own initiative.

We have also substituted the Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal for the Chemical Examiner to Government, as being the officer on whom the work of analysis would ordinarily devolve. As it may not be possible for the Sanitary Commissioner to deal with all cases of analysis provision has been made to enable the Local Government to appoint other officers for this purpose.

11. Clause 18, sub-clause (2) has been omitted in view of the provisions of section 555 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and the fifth schedule to that Code.

12. Clause 19.—We have inserted a provision in this clause in respect of the crediting of fines, etc., to the district fund.

13. Clause 19A.—We consider it advisable to make persons acting under clause 13 "public servants" within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

14. Clause 20(2) (a).—The amendment made here is consequential on the alteration made in clause 4.

15. Clause 21.—We have provided for the punishment of imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months for a second or subsequent breach of the provisions of clauses 5(1), 6(1) and 6(2). The imprisonment may be imposed as an alternative to, or in addition to, the fine prescribed by the Bill as introduced, for a subsequent offence.

16. The Schedule.—In the fourth foot-note the provision allowing the analyst to record his opinion as to "whether ingredients or materials mixed are or are not injurious to health", has been omitted, as being a matter outside the scope of the analyst's duties.

17. We recommend that the Bill, as thus amended, be passed.

(3) If it appears to the Magistrate that any such food is not adulterated, or that any such utensil or vessel is not used for preparing, manufacturing or containing the same, the person from whose shop or place the food, utensil or vessel was taken shall be entitled to have it restored to him, and it shall be in the discretion of the Magistrate to award to such person from such funds as the Local Government may prescribe in this behalf, such compensation, not exceeding the actual loss which he has sustained, as the Magistrate may think proper.

The Darjeeling Hill-sides and Rivers Conservation Bill, 1919.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE evils caused by deforestation and careless cultivation on the hill-sides of the district of Darjeeling have engaged the attention of Government for some time past. In 1905 the Indian Tea Association called the attention of Government to the question, and suggested the appointment of a Commission to investigate the matter. Inquiries made by various officers showed that there were certain definite evils to be dealt with, and that in particular the rough cultivation of clearings without precautions and the deforestation of slopes too steep for any kind of cultivation and their exposure to unrestricted grazing were causing serious landslips likely to be detrimental to the drainage of the district and to its general welfare. There was also evidence that not only were the hill-sides eroded and the river banks destroyed in this manner, but also that the violent floods were causing considerable havoc in the plains. The necessity of dealing with the question thoroughly and effectively was, therefore, apparent.

A Committee was accordingly appointed in 1910 to examine certain typical areas, to investigate each case of specific damage, and to suggest possible remedies or palliatives. As a result of their inquiries the Committee found that serious damage was being caused by landslips, the gradual washing away of the soil of the hill-sides, and the scouring and widening of the beds of rivers and torrents. They recommended the adoption of drastic measures, involving the reafforestation of certain areas, the prohibition of grazing and certain forms of cultivation, and the reservation of a protective belt of land along the banks of all main streams. It was, however, represented by the Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner that the general adoption of these measures would entail the acquisition of large areas of land, the cost of which would be prohibitive; and that such stringent interference with existing rights would cause ruin to many cultivators and hardship to nearly all, and was not really necessary. It is impossible, even if it were desirable, entirely to prevent landslips, though it is usually advisable when a landslip has occurred to prevent the process of recuperation being interfered with by premature grazing, cultivation, or cutting down of vegetation. There is also reason to believe that the more enlightened landholders and cultivators of the district are beginning to realize the necessity in their own interest of avoiding wasteful methods of cultivation on the hill-sides and along the banks of streams; and that it will be sufficient, instead of entirely extinguishing private rights in such areas, to take power to intervene when a man's action is detrimental to his neighbours or to the public interests. The matter was the subject of inquiry and elaborate discussion for a considerable period. The Bill as finally drafted is intended to induce every landholder and cultivator to become his own conservator as far as possible. When it is necessary, in order to prevent public loss or danger, to enforce certain action or abstention from certain action in a particular area, the owners or tenants in that area will in the first place be called upon to take the necessary measures; and it is only in the event of their failure to do so that Government will take the extreme course of assuming temporary control of the land in order to carry out upon it the measures required to secure the public safety.

Provision has been made enabling Government to exempt certain classes of cultivation, which are either beneficial or innocuous to the hill-sides, from the operation of an order applied to a particular locality. The classes of cultivation to be exempted may vary according to circumstances.

Provision has also been made to ensure that cultivation which, if conducted with due precautions, may be innocuous in a particular locality, shall be so conducted.

Power has been taken to compound offences by accepting compensati and provision has been made for appeals against orders passed by the Depu Commissioner under sections 3 and 5 of the proposed Act, and in respect the matters referred to in section 13, and for compensation to owners a occupiers whose property will be affected, and for allowing them adequ time to carry out any action which may be required of them.
